HealthSCOPE Benefits Awarded URAC Accreditation

HealthSCOPE Benefits has been awarded the Claims Processing Administration accreditation by URAC, a Washington, DC-based healthcare accrediting organization that establishes quality standards for the healthcare industry. HealthSCOPE Benefits is the first third party administrator in the United States to receive this accreditation from URAC.

“We are honored to receive the accreditation from URAC,” said Mary Catherine Person, president of HealthSCOPE Benefits. “It reflects our commitment to best-in-class client support and overall quality, which is crucial to protecting our clients in the face of rising healthcare costs.”

The URAC standards development process is consensus-driven, with industry experts serving as volunteers to establish and revise appropriate industry benchmarks.

“By applying for and receiving URAC accreditation, HealthSCOPE Benefits has demonstrated a commitment to quality healthcare,” said URAC President and CEO Kylanne Green. “Quality healthcare is crucial to our nation’s welfare, and it is important to have organizations that are willing to measure themselves against national standards and undergo rigorous evaluation by an independent accrediting body.”

URAC, an independent, nonprofit organization, is a well-known leader in promoting healthcare quality through its accreditation, education and measurement programs. URAC offers a wide range of quality benchmarking programs and services that model the rapid changes in the healthcare system and provide a symbol of excellence for organizations to validate their commitment to quality and accountability. Through its broad-based governance structure and an inclusive standards development process, URAC ensures that all stakeholders are represented in establishing meaningful quality measures for the entire healthcare industry.
